FROM THE COMMITTEE. . .

It has been a busy time with 2 oil painting workshops, one by Ros Psakis and one by John Corby. Both were fully booked out and the results looked great! The Steve Underwood workshop on 30th April is filling fast. Our Annual member's exhibition Works by WAG 5 is coming up. Entry forms will be sent by email and snail mail for those without email. Details on the following pages...

We opened the new "Old PO Gallery" for the Thirlmere Steam Festival with a diverse display of works (see right) and spinning demos by Roswitha,(above) also a stall was manned by Marjorie with dog coats, Pam with Photo cards, Sue with hand made paperworks and Ron with his turned wood display. There were a few sales and some new members signed up. Welcome new members to our group!

Our Treasurer, Maree, resigned at the end of February due to other commitments, so you will notice some changes to our Committee. Ester Kasepuu has stepped up as Public Officer, with Roswitha Giersch and Marjorie Kay now sharing the Treasurer position.

Plans are being finalised for an on-going display at Century 21 in Picton featuring an Artist of the Month plus a display of WAG artists works will be featured at Quintessential coffee shop in Picton. More details as soon as arrangements are complete.
