

Wollondilly Arts Group Newsletter February 2014

PO Box 799 Picton NSW 2571

COMMITTEE REPORT:

Hope everyone has had a good break and ready for some exciting Workshops & Get Togethers Etc in 2014.

After the unheralded resignation of both the President, Julie Hodges and the Secretary, Lavinia Zammit, we called special general meeting to fill positions in the Executive Committee. An all time record number of members attended the meeting.

The out come of which finds WAG with Roman Moraz as our new President, (second from the right, far right photo), Deborah Knoke was elected as Vice President but has since resigned due to work pressures, Janet Dalton (myself) as Secretary and Public Officer, also Newsletter editor. Treasurer is still a casual vacancy, although Marjorie Kay has kindly agreed to continue as Cashier.

Ordinary members of WAG Committee are:
Ingrida Spole, Pam Berrell, Ester Kasepuu, Sue Southwood, Doreen Lyon

and recently Marjorie Kay has agreed to be a Committee member as well. Great to have such a large number of enthusiastic committee members! WAG Committee held another meeting, on the 11th January 2014. as details needed to be discussed about planning the coming year.

WAG's application for the Country Arts Support Grant has been approved and 5 workshops are to be held during 2014.

We are hoping to open the Gallery in Thirlmere on a more regular basis every Sunday so volunteers will be needed.

We will be opening the Gallery on both Saturday & Sunday for the Steam Festival in March. Hence our theme for the upcoming Creative Get Together this coming Saturday will be a Rail Theme. Remember there are many "aspects of Rail": Station Masters, Stations, the flowers that grow beside the tracks, people rushing to catch trains etc, so it does not have to be a work about Trains...

cheers
Janet
