'Series of affordable art-based workshops' 2017

Figure/Portraiture Drawing from a Live Sitter with Bob Gurney Sat 12th May 2018 10am to 1pm

What you will learn:

Explore working with a clothed model to create a completed drawing or to develop for a later artwork. Participants will learn about proportion, tone, measuring, and general hints on composition, etc. will be demonstrated. The use of lighting will be used to enhance tonal qualities and create a finished drawing.

DATE: Sat 12 May 2018, 10am to 1pm

WHERE: Scout Hall, Mason Street, Thirlmere, NSW, 2572

COST: $ 10 members, $ 15 non members

The Tutor – Bob Gurney:

Drawing since early childhood, copying his favourite comic heroes & characters, and making his own private comic strips, he continued to draw portraits and the world around him.

Proficient in oils, acrylics, drawing and pen & wash; Bob's work now consists mainly of land and seascapes, with occasional human and animal portraiture, in which he has developed a realist approach.

Bob is a popular selling artist whose works are represented in private and corporate collections in Australia and overseas and is available for private commissions and demonstrations and workshops to art groups and community organisations.

You will need to bring:

- ❖ sketch pad or cartridge sheets (at least A3)
- ❖ HB, 2B and 4B graphite pencil
- ❖ Kneaded eraser
- ❖ any other paper you wish to work on

Some easels are available, as well as tables and chairs
